Tuesday, Aug. 9, 2022, 1 p.m.

Sudden Death by Carolyn Curry*

Written by a woman who has spent her entire life married to a football player and coach, Sudden Death is a murder mystery set in the world of college football where love, sports, and obsession collide with disastrous results.

Carolyn will be introduced by Coach Bill Curry.

---

Wednesday, Sept. 21, 6 p.m.

The War Nurse by Tracey Enerson Wood

From the USA Today bestselling author of The Engineer’s Wife comes a vibrant and compelling historical fiction novel based on the true stories of the American nurses who served in World War I. Despite its setting in 1918, The War Nurse is urgent and timely in its celebrations of healthcare workers who fought bravely and steadfastly against an indiscriminate enemy: a pandemic.

---

Tuesday, Oct. 4, 2022, 1 p.m.

Tell It True by John Pruitt

Loosely based on the murder of Lemuel Penn by Ku Klux Klansmen in 1964, a story John Pruitt covered as a freshman reporter, Tell It True is Pruitt’s first novel. “There were many momentous stories I covered during my career,” says Pruitt, “but none equaled the magnitude of the struggles for racial equality in the South.” Pruitt eventually rose to top anchor at WSB-TV in Atlanta.
Based on true events, Jennifer Coburn's CRADLES OF THE REICH was inspired by the largely untold stories of the Lebensborn program, Himmler’s state-supported housing for young women whose sole purpose was to give birth to pure blooded Aryan children to be raised by SS families as future leaders of the new Nazi Germany. Eerily reminiscent of Margaret Atwood’s The Handmaid’s Tale, this book is sure to be a book club pick favorite!